UNIVERSALIST PILGRIMAGE

Large Company Went To Chesapeake City Yesterday.

Universalists and their friends made their sixth annual pilgrimage to the old Universalist Church at Chesapeake City Wednesday, leaving in the morning on the Ericsson steamer Lord Baltimore.

Before reaching the canal the entire party was served with dinner. They were shown the working of the locks. At Chesapeake City they visited the ruins of the oldest Universalist church in Maryland and other points of interest. They returned on the steamer Penn from Philadelphia, enjoying a fish and crab supper on the way.
